

Course Code:	SYB213
Course Name:	ETHICAL ISSUES IN HEALTH MANAGEMENT
Credit / ECTS:	3 Credit/ 5 ECTS
Catalogue Description:	The objective of the Ethical Issues in Health Management course is to help students identify and address ethical challenges in healthcare management. It focuses on key ethical principles and equips students with the skills to make informed decisions and navigate dilemmas in healthcare organizations.
Course Objectives:	The objective of this course is to explore ethical issues in health management, focusing on key principles like autonomy, justice, and confidentiality. Students will develop the skills to address ethical dilemmas, make informed decisions, and understand the responsibilities of healthcare managers in ensuring equitable care and patient rights.
Learning Outcome (s):	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1- Identify and analyze ethical issues in healthcare management.</li> <li>2- Apply key ethical principles such as autonomy, justice, and confidentiality to real-world healthcare scenarios.</li> <li>3- Navigate complex ethical dilemmas and make informed decisions.</li> <li>4- Understand the legal and moral responsibilities of healthcare managers.</li> <li>5- Promote ethical practices that ensure patient rights, organizational integrity, and equitable care delivery.</li> </ol>
Weekly Topics	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1- Introduction to Ethics in Healthcare</li> <li>2- Ethical Principles in Health Management</li> <li>3- Patient Rights and Autonomy</li> <li>4- Confidentiality and Privacy</li> <li>5- Justice and Equity in Healthcare</li> <li>6- Ethical Decision-Making Models</li> <li>7- Healthcare Leadership and Ethics</li> <li>8- Legal Issues and Ethical Responsibilities</li> <li>9- Ethics in Healthcare Policy and Systems</li> <li>10- Ethical Dilemmas in Healthcare Management</li> <li>11- Case Studies in Healthcare Ethics</li> <li>12- Promoting Ethical Practices in Health Organizations</li> </ol>